About Me

My name is Ariel Barrios, a front-end designer / developer based in Argentina. Through these years in order to give life to my designs (UI / UX / Visual) or ideas; I have acquired knowledge in different technologies and frameworks; to name a few: java (android), ios, ruby and rails, vuejs, wordpress, etc. It mainly depends on the requirements of the project. I also acquired skills related to animations (AE) and video editing (PR) for the creation of advertisements (banners and publications on social networks) or explanatory videos, also SEO where part of my responsibility.

I worked in different agencies such as: iconosur.com & Beapp.net, ID4You and many others in Argentina and abroad.

Lately to expand my knowledge I have programming arduino projects, 3d printing and doing 3d projects in blender, making a PWA for time rounds, creating videogames (Unity) or my own drawing application (Processing)
